

CX Development

Next-generation architectures and precision tools

Our CX Development Offerings

Websites, portals, PWAs, mobile apps, middleware and front-end optimization

---

Front-end Applications

We build the products and digital touchpoints your users care about, whether standalone or part of a service ecosystem. Whatever the context, trust Eviden to create the software that's closest to your customers

---

Immersive Design and ProductionCX Architecture

Using a MACH (microservice, API-first, cloud-native, headless) approach, Eviden experts can architect solutions that scale and evolve along with your business or market environment

Front-end Transformation

We understand the importance of fluid, cross-device, cross-channel user journeys and how to design your web and mobile applications to be faster, safer and more resilient
